Suspect Arrested for Sell and Deliver Hydrocodone Pills

JOSHUA JAMES ANGLEY has been arrested for selling prescription pills during an undercover operation being led by Newport Police Officer II T. Tucker. ANGLEY sold Hydrocodone pills on two separate occasions while Newport Police Officers were working a drug operation at the Hostess House in Newport. ANGLEY also had his infant child present in the room during both transactions. Officers have increased patrols and investigations at this location recently due to increased calls for service, and concerns about illegal drug activity. During the arrest a total of 41 5mg Hydrocodone pills were seized from ANGLEY.

ANGLEY was also previously charged on June 12th by Newport Police Officer II J. Ferrell for driving while license revoked, fail to stop at a red light, and leaving the scene of an accident. Those charges resulted from a motor vehicle collision ANGELY was involved in on June 12th, where he struck another vehicle at the intersection of US Hwy 70 and Howard Blvd, and then fled the scene. He was apprehended shortly after the collision at the Hostess House in Newport by Detective Alberti and POII Ferrell.
